Etienne Bacher

PhD student in Economics of Migration

Contact

✉ etienne.bacher@liser.lu        🌐 etiennebacher.com        ⚙ etiennebacher

Education

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 2020 – current | PhD Candidate in Economics | LISER, Luxembourg |

- Topic: "Cross-border labor mobility, attitudes and political preferences"
- Member of Doctoral Training Unit ACROSS
- Supervisors: Michel Tenikue, Michel Beine

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 2018 – 2020 | Master's Degree for Research in Development Economics | UCA, Clermont-Ferrand, France |

- Master's thesis : "Immigration and altruistic behavior: a comparison of immigrants' and natives' vote". Use of survey data and microeconometric methods (Heckman correction and matching methods) using R.
- Other work : "Financial development and income inequalities: a cross-sectional analysis". Statistical analysis with a Principal Components Analysis, use of cross-sectional data estimators with R and Stata.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 2017 – 2018 | Bachelor's Degree in Development Economics | UCA, Clermont-Ferrand, France |

- "Does urbanization significantly impact economic growth?". Use of cross-sectional data estimators with EViews.
- "Poverty study in Malawi (2010-2013): a monetary approach". Statistical analysis using base R and survey data.

Professional experience

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 2020 (2 months) | Internship as research assistant | CERDI, Clermont-Ferrand, France |

- Built a dataset on the sovereignty of small islands.
- Created an application with R Shiny to explore this dataset.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 2019 (2 months) | Internship as research assistant | High-Commission for Planning, Rabat, Morocco |

- Production of a report: "Labor market and poverty in Morocco" (in French & English)
- Made the literature review, treated survey data, applied Econometric methods (logistic regression, probit model) using Stata on about 200,000 observations, and participated to the redaction.

Conferences

2021: Population Association of America (Discussant)

Computer skills

Advanced: R

Intermediate: Stata, LaTeX, HTML, CSS

Basic: Matlab, GAMS

Languages

French (native), English (fluent), Spanish (basic)