Etienne Bacher

Luxembourg Institute of Socio-Economic Research
11, Porte des Sciences
L-4366 Esch-sur-Alzette/Belval

etienne.bacher@liser.lu
www.etiennebacher.com

Education

2020 – current	PhD Candidate in Economics	LISER, Luxembourg

- Topic: "Cross-border labor mobility, attitudes and political preferences"

- Member of Doctoral Training Unit ACROSS

- Supervisors: Michel Tenikue, Michel Beine

2018 – 2020	Master's Degree for Research in Development Economics	UCA, Clermont-Ferrand, France

- Master's thesis: "Immigration and altruistic behavior: a comparison of immigrants' and natives' vote". Use of survey data and microeconometric methods (Heckman correction and matching methods) using R.

- Other work: "Financial development and income inequalities: a cross-sectional analysis". Statistical analysis with a Principal Components Analysis, use of cross-sectional data estimators with R and Stata.

2017 – 2018	Bachelor's Degree in Development Economics	UCA, Clermont-Ferrand, France

- "Does urbanization significantly impact economic growth?". Use of cross-sectional data estimators with EViews.

- "Poverty study in Malawi (2010-2013): a monetary approach". Statistical analysis using base R and survey data.

Professional experience

2020 (2 months)	Internship as research assistant	CERDI, Clermont-Ferrand, France

- Built a dataset on the sovereignty of small islands.

- Created an application with R Shiny to explore this dataset.

2019 (2 months)	Internship as research assistant	High-Commission for Planning, Rabat, Morocco

- Production of a report: "Labor market and poverty in Morocco" (in French & English)

- Made the literature review, treated survey data, applied Econometric methods (logistic regression, probit model) using Stata on about 200,000 observations, and participated to the redaction.

Conferences

2021: Population Association of America (Discussant)

Computer skills

Advanced: R
Intermediate: Stata, LaTeX, HTML, CSS
Basic: Matlab, GAMS
Misc: Ubuntu

Languages

French (native), English (fluent), Spanish (basic)

```
[1] "English_United States.1252"
```

CV last updated on July 14, 2021